

Antisocialism

By Nile Coy

It is a foolish thing, to walk down the street and declare to the world at the top of your lungs, that you aren't crazy, because nobody's going to buy it, not with that look on your face,
not in this weather.
Don't get me wrong,
you can do what you want.
Go ahead and screw around, get yourself thrown out of Denny's for good.
Then we'll see how your quality of life is.
